Dear Sir:

We were recently contacted by [redacted] with regard to a possible financial grant to your Soviet Research Group by [redacted] to enable you to meet certain needs in your program. [redacted] indicated these needs to be mainly additional library materials and special lectures by qualified Western experts. He estimated that a grant of $1200 would enable you to improve your program considerably.

I am pleased to advise you that the Beacon Fund is prepared to consider your application for a grant for this purpose. The information provided by [redacted] was most informative, but before due consideration could be given to a request for financial aid, we should require from you additional information as to your aims, activities and financial needs and a formal application. You may forward the necessary information to me at the above address if you so desire.

Very truly yours,
